

APPLICATION FOR PRINCIPAL INVESTIGATOR
OF A RADIOACTIVE MATERIALS AUTHORIZATION

Name and Title:
Date:
DLC:
MIT ID		Kerberos ID
Education and Training (Institution, Dates of Attendance, Degree Obtained)
If a CV is attached indicate so here and skip this section. Is CV Attached? <input type="checkbox"/> Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No
Experience with Radioactive Materials (actual use of radioisotopes including: isotopes, maximum activity handled, type of use, location, and duration of experience)
Topics discussed in Training
<input type="checkbox"/> MIT Radioactive Materials License	<input type="checkbox"/> Radioisotope Inventory
<input type="checkbox"/> Specific Authorization: Compliance and Conditions	<input type="checkbox"/> Security of Radioactive Materials
<input type="checkbox"/> PI Responsibilities	<input type="checkbox"/> Radioactive Waste
<input type="checkbox"/> RPP Services	<input type="checkbox"/> Emergency Response
Signatures
Principal Investigator		Date:
Radiation Protection Staff		Date:

This form is filled out by the Radiation Protection Program Staff during an interview with the individual who has requested to be a Principal Investigator of a Radioactive Materials Authorization. RPP staff and the PI must sign this form after the interview process is complete. This process completes EHS course number 304c.